EVP/Communication activities

Kang Crier and Constant Contact-related activities (Danelle Mathews):

- The First Kang Crier of the year was successfully distributed on Aug 28. Publication will continue on the standard bi-weekly schedule.
- Kang Crier editor will request student/family data from the district in late September. The contact lists in Constant Contact will then be updated, and the student directory for the PTSA website can be created.
- Looking into purchasing an online meeting platform for use this year and beyond.
- Continue to look for help with social media

VP, FACE: Hae Sue Park

- Welcome to LWHS! Parent Primer – two events held Sept. 9 and 10. Over 120 families participated. Slides from presentation are on the PTSA website www.lwhsptsa.org
- Parent Education: need a chair

VP, School Services: Meredith Schwietzer

- EPrep: working to assure adequate supplies for new wing. Hoping to inventory all supplies while students are out of the building
- Staff Appreciation: Back to school comfort kits delivered to staff mailboxes. Staff lounge has been supplied with single serve snacks and the Keurig coffee maker in addition to the Keurig cups. A short “welcome back” video message was delivered to staff on behalf of PTSA
- Sustainability: Considering offering a virtual Green Team Club option. Newsletter of some sort is proposed to be published once a month with students creating content. Synergy between Reflections and Sustainability with student art and content highlighted.
- School Beautification: no current chair

VP, Student Programs: Stacy Mehlberg

- College Application Workshops: Judy Shedd continues to work to find a safe and equitable solution to provide this program virtually (especially essay support) for students who need it most.
- Life Prep: Interest in offering virtual career panels for students.
- Practice ACT/SAT tests ("Fear Free"): will be going virtual. Look for news in the Kang Crier.
