

LWHS PTSA Sponsored SAT/ACT Practice Tests

LWHS PTSA is partnering with Princeton Review to give students the opportunity to take SAT and ACT tests just “for practice” at no cost.

These practice tests are administered by Princeton review. They are real SAT/ACT tests from previous years that enable students to practice and determine their baseline scores prior to taking the actual test. Students can take these practice tests any number of times and the scores from these do not go on their record.

Princeton Review also offers a free strategy session for students where they can learn ways to improve their performance in the actual tests.

Due to the current ongoing pandemic situation, fall practice test and strategy session will be held online.

Fall practice test dates are now open for registration.

SAT Practice Test - Nov 6th, 2021

Registration Ends: Nov 2nd, 2021

Strategy Session Date – TBD (following SAT practice test results sent to students)

ACT Practice Test - Nov 13th, 2021

Registration Ends: Nov 9th, 2021

Strategy Session Date – TBD (following ACT practice test results sent to students)

Register online here.

Procedure for online tests:

1. Students register for the test via the LHWS PTSA website.
2. The email used for registration will be associated with their Princeton Review Account. (Note that students should not use their LWSD email alias – but instead use a personal email alias).
3. A few days prior to the test date, students will receive instructions from Princeton Review.
4. On the day of the test, students will be able to access the test through the Princeton Review portal. Score will be available within minutes of completing the test.
5. For the strategy session (following the test), students will receive an email with a link to the live session
